System Description: The HemCon Hemorrhage Control Bandage was created as a joint effort of HemCon, Inc. and the U.S. Army. The bandage was the result of a three-year collaborative effort to address the leading cause of battlefield mortality: bleeding. The HemCon Bandage controls bleeding by becoming extremely sticky when in contact with blood; this adhesive-like action seals the wound. The HemCon Bandage is even effective on high-pressure, high-flow arterial bleeds.

The HemCon Bandage has been demonstrated to act as an effective barrier between an open wound and dangerous bacteria by the AATCC Test Method 100-2004, Evaluation of Antibacterial Finishes (Technical Manual of the American Association of Textile Chemist and Colorists) in laboratory testing with Staphylococcus aureus and Klebsiella pneumonia bacteria. The HemCon Bandage is a pliable, sterile, chitosan (derived from shrimp shells) dressing capable of stopping severe external hemorrhage following trauma and penetrating injury. The HemCon Bandage does not contain human proteins or clotting factors, nor does it generate heat.
