

SFC Lamont C. Mitchell Sr.
U.S. Army Medical Materiel Agency
Detachment Sergeant

SFC Lamont C. Mitchell Sr. is a native of Buffalo, New York and entered the U.S. Army in 2006. During his 12 years of service, SFC Mitchell has served in a variety of logistics and leadership positions in Forces and Medical Command units, from Supply Specialists to Battalion S4 NCOIC and from Squad Leader to Detachment Sergeant. Prior to coming to USAMMA, his most recent assignment was Platoon Sergeant in the 566 Area Support Medical Company, 1st Medical Brigade at Fort Hood, TX. SFC Mitchell operational deployments include tours in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom and Operation Joint Guardian.

SFC Mitchell is a graduate of Equal Opportunity Course, and Combatives Level 1 course, Unit Movement Officers Course, Air Load Planners Course, Mater Resiliency Trainers Course, Unit Supply Operators Management Course, Environment Compliance Officers Course, Combat Lifesavers Course, Unit Armorers Course, Field Sanitations Course, and the Medical Logistics Management Internship Program.

SFC Mitchell has been awarded the Army Commendation Medal (4OLC); Army Achievement Medal; Army Good Conduct Medal (4th Award); National Defense Service Medal; Iraqi Campaign Medal (w/1 campaign star); Global War on Terrorism Service Medal; Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal; NCO Professional Development Ribbon (w/numeral 3); Army Service Ribbon; Overseas Service Ribbon (w/numeral 3); and the NATO Medal.

SFC Mitchell has completed three levels of the Noncommissioned Officer Education System to include Basic Leaders Course, Advanced Leaders Course, and Senior Leaders Course. He has also continued his civilian education during his tenure in the Army and earned an Associate's Degree in Health Science, a Bachelor's Degree in Psychology, and a Master's Degree in Business Administrations with a special emphasis in Government Contracts and Acquisitions from American Military University.

SFC Mitchell is married and has three children.