

CPT Felipe Rodriguez
Detachment Commander
U.S. Army Medical Materiel Agency

CPT Felipe Rodriguez grew up in Wilmington, California, located in the South Bay of Los Angeles. He enlisted into the Army in 1997. He served in Operation Iraqi Freedom 2003-2004 as a Sergeant and Graduated from Basic Non-Commissioned Officer Course in January 2007. In May of 2010, he graduated from California State University Dominguez Hills with a Bachelor of Arts in Theatre Arts and earned his commission as a second lieutenant through the Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) program from the University of Southern California. He graduated from the Basic Officer Leaders Course in December of 2010 and the 70K Medical Logistics Officers Course in July 2011.

He arrived at Fort Drum, New York, in January 2011 and was selected to attend the 70K course. Upon completion, he was assigned as the Brigade Medical Supply Officer where he supported the 10TH MTN DIV, 1st Brigade Combat Team for Global Reaction Force missions. He was then elevated to work in the Support Operations Office as the Brigade MED LOG Officer to prepare his brigade for deployment to Afghanistan. During his deployment to Afghanistan, he successfully served pushing all commodities of supply to four Forward Operation Bases for his brigade from February through September of 2013.

CPT Rodriguez next served at Fort Irwin, Weed Army Community Hospital (WACH), as the Chief of Materiel. Within three months of being assigned to WACH, he was selected to represent Western Region Medical Command at the first Cadet Summer Training (CST) for Leadership Development and Assessment Course (LDAC) held at Fort Knox, Kentucky, from April through August of 2014. He was assigned as the Future Operations Officer and Officer In Charge of the cell that facilitated the command and control for Cadet Physical Entry Examinations and the Troop Medical Clinic for Cadet Command and Ireland Army Community Hospital. He returned to WACH upon successful completion to continue to work as the Chief of Materiel. Next, he was elevated to the position of Chief of Logistics. He served for two years as the Chief of LOG for WACH and successfully assisted the organization through The Joint Commission's organizational inspections and surveys leading to recognition. In June 2017 he transferred to Fort Detrick, Maryland and currently serves as the U.S. Army Medical Materiel Agency's Detachment Commander.

CPT Rodriguez' military awards include the Meritorious Service Medal; Army Commendation Medal (4 awards); Army Achievement Medal (3 awards); Meritorious Unit Commendation; Army Good Conduct Medal; Army Reserve Components Achievement Medal (2 awards); National Defense Service Medal; Afghanistan Service Medal with 1 Campaign Star; Iraq Campaign Medal with 1 Campaign Star; Global War on Terrorism Service Medal; Korea Defense Service Medal; Non-Commissioned Officer Professional Development Ribbon (with numeral 2); Army Service Ribbon; Overseas Service Ribbon (with numeral 3); Armed Forces Reserve Medal with "M" Device; and NATO Medal.